

SHOT BY COP HE WAS KICKING.

HUMPTY JACKSON GANG GETS THE WORST OF A BUSY NIGHT.

Patrolman Dealing, Wantonly Attacked by Pair of Drunken Toughs, Shoots in Self-Defense—Knocks One Down With His Club—Saloon Wrecker Held.

Policeman Paul Dealing of the East Twenty-second street station placed a bullet from his .38 caliber revolver deep in the thigh of one John Coughlin yesterday morning and by doing so probably saved his own life. Coughlin is in Bellevue Hospital badly hurt, but the surgeons there say he is likely to recover. Dealing, who was badly beaten, kicked and out about the head, ribs and face, is temporarily laid up for repairs. Probably he will be back at his post again in a few days.

It was between 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday morning when Dealing fell in with a noisy gang at Second avenue and Twenty-fifth street. Dealing, standing at Twenty-third street, had seen these men two blocks above swaying to and fro from one side of the sidewalk to the other and filling the air with language that would have shocked the forefathers of an old-fashioned privateer. When Dealing caught up with them the three men were sufficiently disintegrated from their mix-up to reveal two drunks rampant and one drunk couchant. The drunks rampant were trying to keep the drunk couchant on his feet. The drunk couchant was trying to go to sleep on the sidewalk.

As the policeman came running up the three lurched out into the driveway in time to halt and stop a Second avenue north-bound car. When the policeman tried to help put the sleepy man on the rear platform of the car the latter recovered the faculty of speech sufficiently to curse the officer and express a desire to kill him.

"Never mind that, Bill," said one of the others, "we'll tend to that. We'll fix him!"

Then the car went on with the sleepy drunk on board leaving Dealing and the other two on the sidewalk. One of the rampants, who afterward turned out to be Coughlin, followed closely at his heels. Coughlin is a heavy set, powerful man. He is an iron molder, lives at 525 East Sixteenth street, and has a record as an assailant of policemen. The police say he is a member of the "Humpty" Jackson gang whose leader is now in Sing Sing prison for an indiscretion in the atrocious assault line.

As Dealing and Coughlin reached the curbstone Coughlin reached out a grimy hand, in shape and size generally suggesting the ham of commerce.

"Here, cop," he said, "give us your hand; shake!"

"Now, that will do," said Dealing, "you two go on about your business and don't argue any more; then you'll keep out of trouble."

At that Dealing turned to walk away, and as he did so Coughlin dealt him a blow on the side of the head that brought him down like a log. Then Coughlin and his companions fell upon the policeman, showering blows and savage kicks on his head and face. Several persons came running up, but nobody interfered. It was a tough fight, and Dealing was getting the worst of it. He was getting about the head was likely to make an end of him.

He managed to get his revolver and even then he warned the toughs before he fired. A murderous kick was the only response. Then Dealing let fly and Coughlin went down, howling with pain, to the sidewalk.

Policemen Galvin, Larkin and Muldoon came running up. Coughlin still showed fight, but his companions fled and escaped. The police think they know who he is and that they will soon have him. Dealing knocked him down once with a clip of his nightstick on the head.

Robert E. Graham, a printer, of 62 East 114th street, came on the scene before the ambulance arrived, and wanted to assume charge of the wounded man. He was arrested and Magistrate Flammer fined him $10 in the Yorkville police court on a charge of intoxication.

WRECKED WOMAN'S SALOON.

Frank Reilly was arraigned in the Yorkville police court yesterday on a charge of malicious mischief made by Mrs. Hermione Newrod, who keeps a saloon at 202 First avenue. She said that he had thrown a brick through the saloon window after he and several companions had smashed mirrors and other things inside the saloon late Friday night because she refused to give them free drinks.

Detective Butler of the Fifth street station told Magistrate Flammer that Reilly was a member of the Humpty Jackson gang.

Mrs. Newrod said that she and her husband had had a lot of trouble with the gang. Some of the gang had made threats to do up her husband and he worried so much over it that he became sick and went to Germany to rest.

The woman said she did not propose to be frightened away from her business, so she bought a revolver and kept it behind the bar. When the half dozen young men began to smash things in the saloon Friday night she got out her pistol and threatened to shoot the next man who shed a beer glass at a mirror. That left the place quiet. She said she saw Reilly pick up a brick and throw it through the window.

The Magistrate held Reilly in $1,000 bail for trial.

DON'T WANT CHICAGO WITNESS.

Nan Patterson's Counsel Advised That He Would Be Unsatisfactory.

Nan Patterson doesn't want her mother to come here for her trial. J. Randolph Patterson, the girl's father, got a letter from his wife yesterday saying that she was coming. When Mr. Patterson told his daughter about it she made a vigorous protest. She urged her father to keep her mother in Washington, saying: "I don't want my mother to see me in court or in prison."

Abel Levy had a long talk with the chorus girl yesterday afternoon. She was in good spirits. Mr. Levy had a lawyer in Chicago look up Samuel Eisenberg, who says he saw young commit suicide. Mr. Levy heard from the lawyer last night and the lawyer's report was to the effect that Eisenberg would be an unsatisfactory witness.

Trixie Boutelle, the chorus girl who is raising a fund for Nan Patterson, got a check for $100 yesterday from John W. Trinkle of Philadelphia. Miss Boutelle sent the check to Miss Patterson. She says she will raise $1,000 before her trial is over.

Examination of Dentists for the Army.

WEST POINT, April 22.—A number of graduated dentists are at West Point taking the examination prescribed for admission to the army as contract dental surgeons. They are from all parts of the country, having been appointed upon the recommendation of Congressmen. Several surrendered before entering upon the long and critical examination. Candidates received 85 per cent. on practical work, and 75 on theoretical work. It is the latter test that causes desertion. The examinations will continue for several days.

Capt. Lund Not Freed of His Debts.

Judge Holt of the United States District Court has refused to grant a discharge from bankruptcy to Capt. Francis B. Lund, who was a whole-sale liquor dealer at 15 William street, and who filed a petition in bankruptcy on Sept. 14, 1903, with liabilities $31,251, and assets $2,355. The discharge was opposed by George A. Kessler & Co. and two other creditors on the allegation that Lund obtained $11,000 of wines on credit on a false statement.

Five Hundred $2.75 Gas Stoves at $1.89

A maker of Gas Stoves moved his factory out of New York City to the city where his factory is located—so that both he and his customers are benefited. He sold us all of the Gas Stoves he had in stock—at a ridiculously low price—and we shall sell them to-morrow at $1.89—instead of $2.75.

Three burner—nickel plated; double blue flame burners; lift-up covers.

The offer includes 10 feet of gas tubing—alone worth $60. In the Basement To-morrow.

Five Hundred $1.00 Porch Rockers at 63c

Positively for this Monday only. The price is away below the actual cost—and we have exactly five hundred of them to sell. They may last all day Monday; but they won't if you appreciate a bargain.

These rockers are exactly as you see them in the picture; sturdy and solid. Built of maple (the best wood to with stand the elements); finished in either natural, red or green. Red seats. They would be very cheap at One Dollar. At 63c. they are a positive bargain.

Astonishing Prices for Dress Goods.

We Launch To-morrow One of the Most Important Sales Ever Heard of.

If absurdly low prices on the very sort of Dress Materials most in vogue are a criterion to go by, you have spread before you for the business of to-morrow and Tuesday the greatest values in Dress Goods ever offered by any store. We sometimes do radical things—even at the beginning of a season that augurs much. This is one of them. We propose to make this the banner week of Dress Goods selling. Having set our figures very high, we have prepared a programme that will reach them.

All you wish to buy of every item—until Tuesday night—but no mail or C. O. D. orders can be filled. This is to be distinctly a sale to bring you to the store in person.

TO PROBE MEXICAN FRAUDS.

Inquiry to Be Made Into American Concerns Doing a Questionable Business.

MEXICO CITY, April 22.—It is stated here that United States Consul-General Parsons has received instructions from Washington to conduct a rigid investigation into a number of American concerns which are alleged to be doing a questionable business in Mexican lands. It is said that some of these companies which advertise extensively in the United States and have sold great blocks of stock have holdings of little value in Mexico. The investigation is to include rubber and coffee growing companies particularly.

HELD FOR WEST SIDE HOLD-UP.

Man, Who Escaped From Cop, Rearrested and Identified by Lawyer Albright.

William Miller of 840 West Forty-seventh street, for whom the police have been looking since April 8, was arraigned in the West Side court yesterday, charged with robbing Lawyer G. W. Albright of 41 West Twenty-third street. Mr. Albright was assaulted on West Thirty-fifth street, near Eighth avenue, dragged into an alley and beaten. The robber took a $200 watch, $100 diamond ring, $15 in cash and two Masonic emblems worth $20.

Just after the assault Policeman Winters of the West Thirty-seventh street station saw Miller coming out of the alley. He made him go back to the place and there they found Albright on the ground. While the policeman was helping the lawyer, Miller ran away. On Friday night he was arrested by Detective Boyle of the same precinct.

Bright identified his assailant, and Magistrate Ommen held him in $1,500 for trial. The police have located the stolen articles in a pawnshop.

UNION TREASURER ARRESTED.

Johnston of the Steamfitters Accused of Not Accounting for $1,500.

Charles Johnston of 71 South Fifth street, Brooklyn, the treasurer of the Enterprise Association of Steamfitters, was arrested yesterday on the complaint of Samuel Macius of 2440 Eighth avenue, one of the auditing committee of the association.

Bokius charged Johnston with not accounting satisfactorily for $1,500 which, he declared, had been turned in to the organization between Jan. 9, 1902, and Feb. 5, 1903. Ex-Judge Alfred Steckler appeared with the complainant in the Yorkville police court, where the defendant was arraigned.

Lawyer Nugent, in behalf of Johnston, asked Magistrate Flammer to put the hearing over to Tuesday. The Magistrate did so and held the man in $2,000 bail.

TROUBLE WITH NICARAGUA?

United Fruit Company Loses Its Monopoly in the Escondido River.

NEW ORLEANS, La., April 22.—A quarrel between the Government of Nicaragua and the Americans over a Nicaraguan concession may involve the United States with the Government of Nicaragua. Some years ago that Government granted the Bluefields Banana Company the exclusive right to navigate the Escondido River. This enabled the Bluefields company and its successor, the United Fruit Company, to load its vessels at Rama, sixty miles in the interior, and in the very heart of the fruit country.

The independent fruit companies protested against the grant when it was made on the ground that the Escondido River had been open to all vessels from time immemorial. The Government has decided against the United Fruit Company and has recommended that the Escondido River be thrown open to all vessels.

The United Fruit Company here appeals to the State Department against the action as a case of breach of trust.

COLLEGE WIDOW PLAYER HELD.

Ralph Stillwell to Be Tried on Mrs. Gray's Charge of Looting Her Boarding House.

Ralph Stillwell, of 129 West Twenty-sixth street, the football player in "The College Widow," who was arrested on Friday night, was arraigned in the West Side court yesterday on complaint of Mrs. Lydia Gray, of 142 West Thirty-seventh street.

Mrs. Gray said that, while she was out one day, the place was looted of $1,200 worth of stuff. Two boarders disappeared at the same time. The police could find no trace of them or the stolen stuff. Last week, while walking on Columbus avenue, Mrs. Gray saw one of them named Cody, and caused his arrest. She says he confessed the theft. He was held in $1,500 for trial.

From statements made by Cody, the police believed that Stillwell was implicated and in the city. They located him at the
